- C. Uniform Dialing
- D. Zone Based Dialing

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION: 3

Although little-known today in the United States, Clark Saunders (1859-1941) cast a large shadow in the first several decades of the twentieth century, writing many widely read books on Native American, Spanish, and Anglo folklore. He also wrote extensively on the different cultures of California, the Sierras, and the Southwest. He was a major and influential contributor to Sunset Magazine in its early years. In his day, Saunders was important for introducing much of the American public to a person-sized understanding of the "Old West."

The passage presents Saunders as a(n)

- A. important historian of the West.
- B. influential contemporary western writer.
- C. widely read author in his own day.

D. a specialist of Native American studies.

E. the first editor of Sunset Magazine.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Explanation:

The passage says that Saunders was a writer on Western topics who was widely read in the past. D fits with this. A does not. The passage does not say anything like (B), (C), or (E). Thus D is the best choice.
