NEW QUESTION: 1
The following is true about the routing self-loop description in an OSPF network?
A. The routing self-loop is not eliminated in the OSPF autonomous system.
B. There is no self-loop in the external route of the OSPF autonomous system.
C. Route self-loop has been eliminated in the OSPF area.
D. There is no route self-loop between OSPF areas.
Answer: C

NEW QUESTION: 2
Your network contains an Active Directory domain named contoso.com. The domain contains a server named Admin1 that runs Windows Server 2012 and a server named Server2 that has the File Services server role installed.
You install the Windows Deployment Services server role on Admin1.
You plan to use Server2 as a reference computer.
You need to create an image of Server2 by using Windows Deployment Services.
Which type of image should you add to Admin1 first?
A. Discovery
B. Install
C. Boot
D. Capture
Answer: C
Explanation:
A. Configure the server and add the default images (Install.wim and Boot.wim) that are included on the installation media (in the Sources folder).
B. A type of boot image that you can use to install an operating system on a computer that is not Pre-Boot Execution Environment (PXE) enabled. When you boot a computer into a discover image, a Windows Deployment Services server will be located, and then you can choose the install image you want to install.

C. The operating system image that you deploy to the client computer. To create install images using Windows Deployment Services, you must first create a capture image.
D. A type of boot image that you boot a client computer into to capture the operating system as a .wim file.
You must first create a capture image when you are creating custom install images.

NEW QUESTION: 3
HOTSPOT
You have a server named SQL1 that has SQL Server 2014 installed. SQL1 has 32 processor cores and 64 GB of RAM.
SQL1 hosts a database used for a public-facing marketing website. SQL1 performs Online Transaction Processing (OLTP) operations only.
Several of the queries that run on SQL1 use the 32 processor cores and complete in 30 ms.
You need to reduce the number of queries that use multiple cores. The solution must also reduce the number of processor cores used by the queries that require multiple processor cores.
Which two database settings should you modify? To answer, select the appropriate settings in the answer area.

Answer:
Explanation:

Cost Threshold for Parallelism
The cost threshold for parallelism option specifies the threshold at which SQL Server creates and runs parallel plans for queries. SQL Server creates and runs a parallel plan for a query only when the estimated cost to run a serial plan for the same query is higher than the value set in cost threshold for parallelism. The cost refers to an estimated cost required to run the serial plan on a specific hardware configuration, and is not a unit of time. The cost threshold for parallelism option can be set to any value from 0 through 32767. The default value is 5.
Max Degree of Parallelism
When an instance of SQL Server runs on a computer that has more than one microprocessor or CPU, it detects the best degree of parallelism, that is, the number of processors employed to run a single statement, for each parallel plan execution. You can use the max degree of parallelism option to limit the number of processors to use in parallel plan execution.

NEW QUESTION: 4
You are deploying 10,000 new Internet of Things devices to collect temperature data in your warehouses globally. You need to process, store and analyze these very large datasets in real time.
What should you do?
A. Export logs in batch to Google Cloud Storage and then spin up a Google Cloud SQL instance, import the data from Cloud Storage, and run an analysis as needed.

B. Send the data to Google Cloud Pub/Sub, stream Cloud Pub/Sub to Google Cloud Dataflow, and store the data in Google BigQuery.
C. Send the data to Cloud Storage and then spin up an Apache Hadoop cluster as needed in Google Cloud Dataproc whenever analysis is required.
D. Send the data to Google Cloud Datastore and then export to BigQuery.
Answer: B
Explanation:
Pubsub for realtime, Dataflow for pipeline, Bigquery for analytics.
